FOREWORD

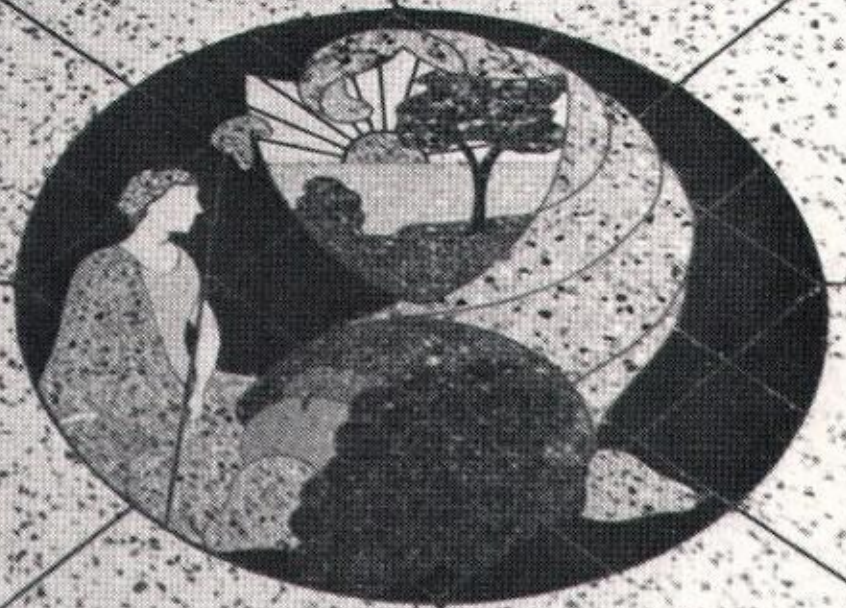

For most of us, we have been here for our four years of high school. Now we must leave and step out to face a future that is very uncertain. In whatever degree of success or failure we may find ourselves in years to come, if a glance at these pages will lighten our labors—if only for a single moment—we deem our yearbook worthwhile.

Each of the students at B. C. S. had a part in making this school year one to be remembered. Each event will be remembered; some were happy occasions, and others sad, but they are made a part of our school career—a time never to be forgotten.

We hope you enjoy "La Liberte'." It was ours for almost a year. Now it belongs to you.

DEDICATION

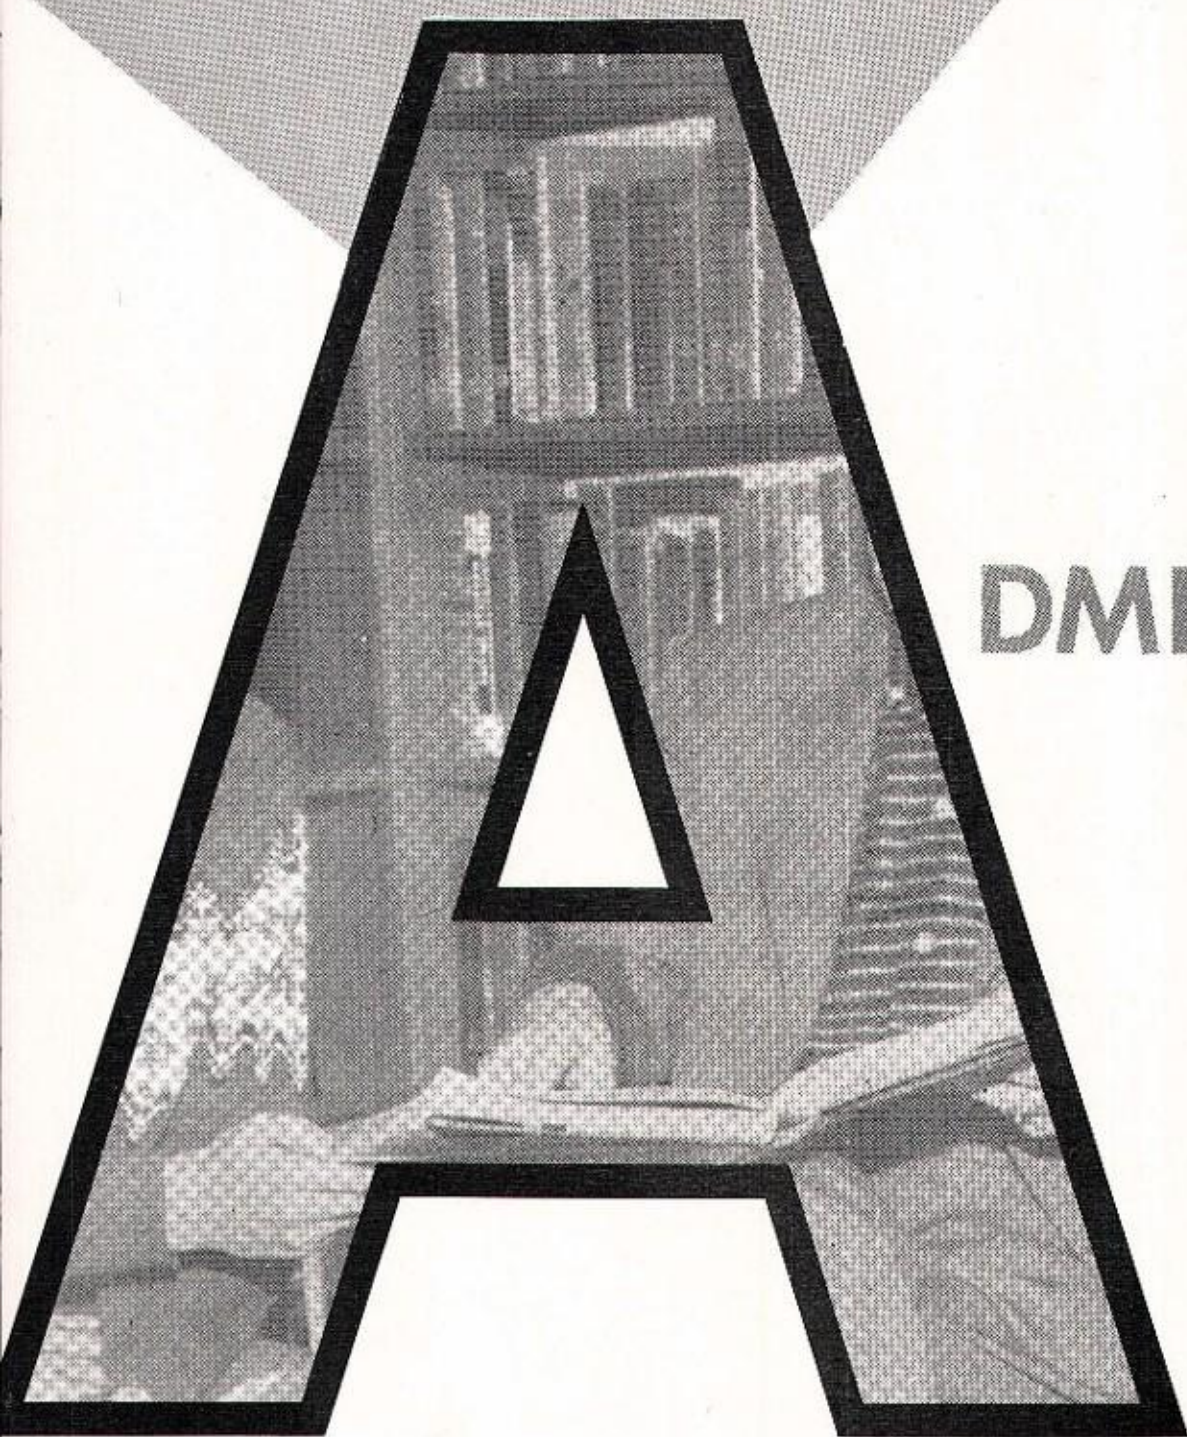

The Senior Class of 1963 is pleased and proud to dedicate this edition of LaLiberte' to MISS FLORENCE MILLS.

We dedicate this yearbook to Miss Mills not because of her specific contribution to our class because so few of us have had her for our teacher, but rather because of her immeasurable contribution in the education of the thousand or so Brocton students who have.

Miss Mills graduated from Brocton High School after which she attended Fredonia State Teachers College before she began teaching in Ripley, New York, in 1925. Five years later Miss Mills came "back" to Brocton and for the past 33 years has been a member of our faculty.

We wish Miss Mills the success in retirement, which she will begin in June, that she has had in her 38 years of teaching. Our school will miss her but the students who will never have her for their teacher to witness her understanding, patience and firmness will, unknowingly, miss her most.

JOHN OLYOWSKI

LARRY STANTON

The Class of 1963 deeply regrets the loss of two of their classmates.
The absence of John and Larry has saddened many hearts.
The words of Charles Dickens can best express our feelings. . .

"When Death strikes down the innocent and young, for every fragile form from which he lets the panting spirit free, a hundred virtues rise, in shapes of mercy, charity, and love, to walk the world, and bless it."

Getting to the play-offs was no easy task for the Brocton Bulldogs last season. The gap left when the lives of Ted Cox, Winnie Delcamp and Sonny McFadden were taken in a tragic December accident was difficult to overcome. The memory of these boys served as an inspiration to spur the team on to the play-offs.
